

Casey Family Programs Foundation: Investment Operations Professional

The Casey Family Programs Foundation is looking for an Investment Operations Professional for their Seattle headquarters. Casey manages about $2.3 billion in assets and supports foster care programs in the US.

The most likely candidate will come from a financial services institution, business consulting/project management firm like Deloitte or Accenture, or large law firm.

Responsibilities include data, records, and investment contracts management. Casey's investment staff of nine includes two hard-working ops professionals.

Compensation is around $100k base, bonus up to 80%.

For more background, please call Charles Skorina at 520-529-5677, or email skorina@charlesskorina.com