

AUDIT MANAGER

Who We Are

Jacobson Jarvis is the region's largest public accounting firm focused 100% on the nonprofit community. Since 1991, we have assisted a broad range of nonprofit clients headquartered primarily in the Pacific Northwest. For more than 30 years, our mission has been to provide an unmatched level of high-quality service to our clients. Our focus on this mission ensures consistent professional improvement as we continue to grow our team and the number of clients we serve. We recognize that our clients want more than just an audit report. We also know that accounting questions don't wait until the audit starts. We view ourselves as business advisors and a responsive resource to our clients throughout the year.

As a member of our Audit Department, you will be assigned to engagements that will provide opportunities for you to enhance your own professional, technical and interpersonal skills. You will participate in department-wide decision-making and direct client service. You will have the opportunity to help grow the firm and your own professional network by joining firm leaders and other team members at presentations, conferences and other continuing education events.

What You'll Do For JCo

We are looking for an Audit Manager to join our team. Our managers, like our partners, are working auditors. You will be leading engagements from start to finish, including planning, supervising and completing the engagement while managing client deadlines, monitoring performance against budget, and communicating engagement status and concerns with the engagement partner. You will develop and maintain a relationship with the clients which continues beyond audit weeks. You will also supervise audit seniors and associates assigned to your engagement team, including performing the detailed review of seniors' and associates' work.

As a manager with an entrepreneurial spirit, you will have continued opportunities to grow as a professional. You will assist with business development, including preparing proposals, networking with peers and other industry professionals, making public presentations and recruiting new team members. While there is a clear path to partner, there is no pressure to pursue that goal.

Who You Are

You bring at least five years of recent auditing experience with a public accounting firm and are a licensed CPA that has not been sanctioned by any jurisdiction. You'll be able to demonstrate mastery of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. You'll be able to demonstrate mastery of generally accepted auditing standards and generally accepted governmental auditing standards. Your written and verbal communication skills and organizational skills are excellent. You can also demonstrate your ability to train and manage your audit team.

Ideally, you are located in the Seattle area. You can demonstrate mastery of nonprofit GAAP. You can demonstrate understanding of "the business of a CPA firm."

What We Will Do For You
